'WE WANT CLARITY ON COMMUNITY HOSPITALS'

A WITNEY councillor is calling for clarity on the future of Oxfordshire's community hospitals, after a 30-bed ward in Witney's hospital shut on Tuesday for seven months.

Laura Price, a councillor on Witney Town Council and Oxfordshire County Council, said the way changes to community hospitals are decided is leaving people 'feeling cheated'.

She is due to raise a motion on Tuesday at the first full meeting of the county council since the summer break, demanding a full public consultation on the future of community hospitals.

By Alex Ballinger
alex@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Cllr Price told the Guardian: "We need the people that commission these services to have a wide ranging consultation.

"What we need to know is what is the response for community health provision in Oxfordshire?"

Oxford Health NHS Foundation Trust runs nine community hospitals across Oxfordshire.

Spokesman Lorcan O'Neill explained the Witney Wenrisc ward closure is due to financial pressures, and would mean 24 beds in other community hospitals could open.

But residents and leaders said the announcement was made suddenly, and with little notice.

Cllr Price's motion states: "These changes have not been deemed appropriate for public consultation and communities have been left feeling cheated of an opportunity to engage."

Community hospitals are commissioned by Oxfordshire Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG).

Spokesman Julia Stackhouse said: "Within health and social care we are all agreed that the changing nature of people's health and care needs mean that, over time, services will need to transform and change.

"We cannot do this in isolation an would want to work with the local communities we serve."

Community hospitals are for patients who no longer need an acute hospital like the John Radcliffe Hospital. Abingdon, Bicester, Chipping Norton, Didcot, Henley, Oxford, Wallingford, Wantage and Witney all have community hospitals which provide rehab and palliative care, particularly for older people.

West Oxfordshire district councillor for Witney Central, Andrew Coles, supported the motion.

He said: "Community hospitals are so important to local people.

"When any changes are made it's important the community are brought along."

Cllr Price is due to raise the motion at the meeting at County Hall in New Road at 10am.

£1 per time plans to save recycling centres

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

PLANS for residents to pay one pound every time they use household waste recycling centres (HWRC) have been proposed by an Oxfordshire county councillor.

Kevin Bulmer, the Conservative councillor for Goring, is proposing the motion at a full council meeting on Tuesday - as the future of the county's HWRCs hanging in the balance.

The council launched a consultation last month on plans to save £350,000 a year by potentially closing four of the county's seven centres.

Cllr Bulmer believes that residents 'should be given the option' of paying the fee in order to use the recycling centres before the council decides to close any of them.

He said: "£350,000 is not a huge amount so it would not need a big charge for the people to make up the difference.

"An option where residents would pay 50p or a pound every time they used it should be given to them as it would show if they truly value the service provided to them."

The county council is planning to build one new centre to replace Ardley, near Bicester, and Alkerton, near Banbury.

Either Oxford's Redbridge centre or Drayton's centre near Abingdon could either expand, or both could close.

There are also fears that Oakley Wood recycling centre near Wallingford, Stanford in the Vale's recycling centre, and Dix Pit recycling centre near Stanton Harcourt could also shut.

Cllr Bulmer added: "I do not think people would have an issue paying a nominal fee in order to do their recycling.

"If it keeps them open then it means people will want to use them."

• Oxford's Redbridge Recycling Centre could close

Legislation from the Civic Amenities Act 1967 to the Environmental Protection Act 1990 has required local authorities to provide free-to-use HWRCs for residents.

Leader of South Oxfordshire District Council, John Cotton, said: "I'm not sure having residents pay to use the HWRCs is the answer as residents already pay a significant amount of their council tax to the county council in order to use these services.

"If county councillors believe, as I do, that recycling centres should remain open and accessible to the public, they should make the necessary provision for such in their annual budget."

SODC cabinet member for waste, Tony Harbour, said: "I think people will pay a fee to keep them open but I do not think that they should have to as they are already paying for it in their council tax."

£15k work begins on community centre

WORK has begun on a £15,000 refurbishment of the East Oxford Community Centre in Cowley Road.

Oxford City Council took over the running of the centre on Tuesday and is aiming to 'transform the centre' over the coming years with new community buildings.

The revamp includes replacing dance mirrors, decorating the lounge and upper hall, replacing windows on the outside, improving notice boards, replacing the back gate and providing secure space for refuse bins.

The work is only due to last for a couple of weeks.

City councillor Christine Simm, board member for culture and communities, said: "East Oxford Community Centre has an incredibly exciting future.

"We are investing £15,000 and bringing in new activities now.

"And we're currently looking at and consulting on ways to improve and extend the buildings in the longer term.

"We want to make sure the centre goes from strength to strength."

The council recently commissioned a £200,000 feasibility study to look at different ways the centre could be developed, with results of the study set to form a public consultation on long-term plans for the centre.

The East Oxford Community Association, which used to run the site, was replaced after the council said they were unhappy with the way it was being run.

'Mini park and ride' plans go in

PLANS for a two-year temporary 'mini park and ride' on agricultural land at Hill Farm in Didcot have been submitted to Vale of White Horse District Council.

Oxford Architects submitted a major planning application to the council on behalf of applicants First Great Western on August 26, asking for consent to build a 814 space car park.

The intention of the car park is to accommodate displaced users of the Foxhall Road car park after a £23million project to develop a 1,800-space multi-storey car park at Didcot Parkway station was announced earlier this year.

The temporary car park would lie just north of the A4310 and northeast of the roundabout with Collett, and a bus link service would run between the car park and the station forecourt.

Work on the Network Rail-owned car park in Foxhall Road is expected to start as early as this year, and First Great Western hope to start building the temporary car park if they get planning permission.

The car park is estimated to only be in use for a 12-month period.

A target date for a decision has been pencilled in for November 27.

Oxford quarterback inspires charity action

AN OXFORD American footballer has inspired his friends and family to perform a charity head shave and epic cycling marathon from London to Paris after he was diagnosed with leukaemia.

Ben Denton, 25, the quarterback for the Oxford Saints American football team, was diagnosed with acute lymphoblastic leukaemia last month after he went into hospital for a blood check.

The solicitor, who lives in Cowley Road, is being treated in a specialist unit at Churchill Hospital, Headington, where he is set to remain for at least a month after beginning his chemotherapy last Wednesday.

after they met at Wallingford School and was with him when he got the news about his condition.

He said: "Words cannot describe the moment when I found out that he had got the news."

Luke added: "It just made me feel that I had to be there for him in the hospital as much as I could be."

Luke is organising a cycling marathon from London to Paris to take place next June along with 17 other members.

And they are aiming to raise around £22,000 for Leukaemia & Lymphona Research from the event.

Luke added: "Ben ran the London Marathon three times and the Paris Marathon once, and that has really inspired our journey as we want to honour what he's achieved by doing something he loved."

Ben's brother Ross, 22, is also planning on running a charity head shave for his brother along with members of the Oxford Saints team that will take place in the coming months.

Oxford Saints defence coach, Andy Peart, said of the event: "When we heard the news about Ben it was a big shock to the club, as we are very close-knit and Ben is one of the kindest guys you will ever meet so the boys wanted to do something to help in any way."

Ben's dad Jeremy Denton, 60, from Wallingford, said that Ben's spirits are 'good' despite starting the chemotherapy for his condition.

He said: "Ben's spirits are good, he's fine for the most part besides the chemo.

"In fact his only grievances at the minute are when the Wi-Fi at the hospital fails and he can't watch Netflix.

"It's tremendous that people are trying to raise awareness for him and that he's had so many well wishers. I know it means a lot to him."

'Unrepentent' sex offender convicted

A MAN described by police as an 'unrepentant paedophile' has been convicted of voyeurism and sexual offences against children in Oxford.

Brett Saunders, 42 of Croft Road in Swindon, Wiltshire, was convicted of three counts of voyeurism and eight counts of sexual assault of a child under 13 at Oxford Crown Court on Wednesday August 26.

The offences took place in Oxford against three girls between August 2004 and approximately February 2010.

Investigating officer Detective Constable Jeff Wheble, from the Paedophile Online Investigation Team, said: "Saunders has shown himself to be an unrepentant paedophile whose denial of the offences resulted in his young victims having to go through the ordeal of giving evidence in court.

"I would like to praise the bravery of the victims in coming forward and helping police with this investigation.

"This conviction demonstrates that Thames Valley Police takes all reports of sexual offences seriously and deals with them sensitively. If you have been the victim of sexual offences please contact police by calling 101."

Saunders was reported for the offences on December 17 last year and received a summons to attend court.

He was convicted following a six day trail and is due to be sentenced at Aylesbury Crown Court on the week beginning September 21.

Green leader gives support to Oxfordshire charity in visit

THE leader of the Green Party Natalie Bennett paid a visit to Oxford last week and showed her support for a local immigration charity.

Ms Bennett visited Asylum Welcome in Magdalen Road while touring the city to meet the charity's leaders and volunteers.

She also visited the site of the East Oxford Community Centre and the Lye Valley.

By Alexander Ballinger
alex@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Ms Bennett, who has been leader of the party since 2012, told the Guardian: "We've heard stories of enormous human suffering here."

She added: "Asylum Welcome are really trying to undo the failures of the government.

• (from left) Natalie Bennett, volunteers Peyman Ismali and Chris Perrett and charity director Kate Smart

"I think the charity is great."

The charity aims to support refugees, asylum seekers and immigration detainees across the county.

The 120 volunteers working there offer advice, education and run events for anyone seeking asylum or refuge.

The director of Asylum Welcome, Kate Smart, said: "The clue is in the name. We believe that people seeking refuge or asylum in Oxford deserve to be welcomed by local people.

"The government is trying to pass a bill that would cut funding to refugees with children."

The charity and Ms Bennett both want to prevent parliament from passing the bill.

The Home Office has proposed the removal of asylum support payments and accommodation from families with young children, described by Ms Smart as 'a complete absence of basic, decent humanitarian values.'

Ms Smart said: "Most people don't come here for the £35 a week they get, they come here because it's not safe in their countries.

"Many feel homesick and go home as soon as it's safe for them to."

Ms Bennett also visited the East Oxford Community Centre to show support for residents who want to keep the centre under their control.

She said: "Oxford is one of the areas with the strongest green support.

"We've have great representation on the city and county councils and we're looking to grow."

Cocaine addict is sentenced

A MAN has been sentenced to 33 months in jail for a series of offences that saw him threaten a man with a knife to fund his cocaine addiction.

Timothy Joyce Junior, 27, of Red Bridge Hollow, received the sentence at Oxford Crown Court last Friday.

He had previously pleaded guilty to four counts of theft, one of intimidation, one of affray, one of holding a bladed article in public and one of making threats to kill.

The four counts of theft relate to a series of vehicle thefts in which Joyce Junior stole items such as chainsaws and electric drills over the course of last year.

This is as well as stealing from a man he had been drinking with in a pub in Oxford on April 24, 2014 in order to fund his drug addiction.

The other counts relate to an incident on April 5 this year in which Joyce Junior threatened another man in his home with a knife when he was looking to buy cocaine in Rose Hill, Iffley.

Judge Ian Pringle QC also ordered a restraining order on Joyce Junior for the people he threatened in the incident on April 5, meaning he is not allowed to enter the area for five years.

Joyce Junior appeared in court via video link from Bullingdon Prison and was charged by police on April 6.

Jet-setting DJ duo sign record deal

A DJ DUO who learned their trade in Oxford have set off touring around Europe after signing their first album deal just weeks after graduation.

NVOY (pronounced en-voy) are James King, 22, from Worcester, and Connor Turner, 21, from Nottingham, who both completed their two-year degree in audio production from Littlemore-based SAE Institute in July with first class honours degrees.

The duo were discovered on social media by BBC Radio 1 DJ Skream, who found their tracks through their Soundcloud account.

And last week they put pen to paper on a deal with Black Butter Records, an independent record label owned by industry giant, Sonic Music Entertainment.

James spoke to the Guardian about how they are adapting to their newfound lifestyle touring Europe.

He said: "Our lives are pretty much split between a lot of travelling or sometimes just hibernating in the studio, and that's kind of the pattern week to week.

"Last year we were still studying and it seems like a long time ago.

"We have ideas of where we want to be, such as seeing the world, developing our musical style, eating lots of good food and playing our music."

The duo were thrown together by chance when they moved into the same house in Oxford after starting their degrees.

Their new release 'All Night' is gaining airplay on BBC Radio 1 Extra, and the duo have already embarked on a hectic summer schedule playing at Glastonbury in June and have recently returned from a stint in Ibiza.

The group are preparing for their summer tour that will see them play Bestival on the Isle of Wight, as well as in Mallorca and a return to Ibiza, along with fitting in a performance in Oxford at The Bullingdon in Cowley Road on September 17.

James added: "Our highlight has been Glastonbury but you can't knock going out to Ibiza and playing a show to a warm sunrise over a beach.

He was also full of praise for SAE Institute: "SAE gave us the framework we needed.

"It helped us find our feet, gave us time to make music and use the amazing studio spaces to record music."

Car stolen in stick robbery

A CAR was stolen after a robbery was carried out with what appeared to be a stick.

The robbery happened between 12.30am and 1am on Friday when a 22-year-old man was approached while driving his car in Between Towns Road, Oxford.

The offender went up to the car with a stick, smashed the driver's side window, and hit the victim on the shoulder with it.

The victim got out of the car and ran away, chased by the offender, and got into a taxi.

The offender then stole the victim's grey Skoda Fabia and drove away down Cowley Road towards the city centre.

Investigating officer PC Hannah Cormack, from St Aldate's Police Station, said: "The stick described as the weapon may have actually been a snooker cue.

"There is believed to have been another man with the offender, travelling in a black Volkswagen Golf and I would like anyone with information about who the offenders maybe to speak to police."

The victim was not hurt in the incident and the car was found burnt out in Cottesmore Road after being set alight.

The offender was approximately six-foot tall, medium build, and aged around 20 or 21 years old.

West Oxon leader to be knighted

By Alexander Ballinger
alex@taylornewspapers.co.uk

• Leader of West Oxfordshire District Council, Barry Norton

THE leader of West Oxfordshire District Council, Barry Norton, is set to be knighted for his political service.

Cllr Norton was named in the Prime Minister's Dissolution Honours list last Thursday.

He has been the councillor for North Leigh since 1983, leader of the council since 2001, and has acted as Prime Minister's David Cameron's election agent for 15 years.

Cllr Norton said: "I'm thrilled and really moved to be receiving such an honour.

"It was quite overwhelming really, I have worked a lot in public service in Oxfordshire and have been district council leader for 15 years, so I'm delighted to receive this honour."

As election agent he has been responsible for the management of Witney MP and Prime Minister David Cameron's election campaigns.

Chairman of the Witney Conservative Future Group, Liam Walker, said: "It's well deserved.

"I don't know anybody whose given so much and done so much for West Oxfordshire."

Chairman of West Oxfordshire Council, Norman MacRae, added: "Cllr Norton is completely dedicated to local issues, taking all his duties extremely seriously.

Cllr MacRae continued: "He could be described as a great example of a 'grassroots' councillor who also has vision of what can be achieved in a wider context.

"He holds a pivotal role in the council, leading on major projects and is a strong supporter of the local economy and tourism and has been a pioneer and keen advocate for shared services."

Cllr Norton added: "During this time, I have achieved a lot and it's certainly one of the best district council's in the country.

"It was a really nice accolade to be commended.

"I have known the Prime Minister since the early 2000s and have dealt with him since then."

He added: "I'd say we have a close working relationship and I would certainly count on him as good friend."

Others named in the Dissolution Honours list for 2015 include the former Liberal Democrat MP and ex-chief secretary to the Treasury, Danny Alexander.

News Bites

New noise app

OXFORD: Residents in Oxford can now record noise issues on their tablet and send them to the city council to investigate.

The Noise App, which can be downloaded from Apple and Android app stores, will allow residents to send noise issues to investigators rather than having to describe them on diary sheets.

The system will mean investigators can receive noise recordings almost immediately and deal with them faster.

Record turnout

BICESTER: More children than ever before took part in a summer of fun programmes organised by Cherwell District Council during the school break.

During the six weeks, 2,556 bookings were taken for the weekday holiday hubs organised by the council in Bicester, Bloxham and Banbury.

Yoga Classes

KIDLINGTON: Cherwell District Council has introduced a gentle yoga class to Kidlington residents, specifically those with low or chronic energy levels.

The new weekly class began on Tuesday at Kidlington Baptist Church.

The classes are particularly suitable to people with conditions such as chronic fatigue syndrome or ME.

Porters vote in last-minute deal to stop 48-hour strike

A LAST-MINUTE deal with porters at the John Radcliffe Hospital in Headington avoided a 48-hour strike over planned changes to shift patterns and job roles.

The deal was announced last Wednesday, with porters originally planning strike action for last Thursday and Friday.

The porters, who are members of public sector trade union Unison, voted to accept the new proposals from employer Carillion following weeks of negotiations.

Carillion's original proposals would have seen a large number of porters lose up to £54 per week as a result of forced shift changes.

Unison's general secretary, Dave Prentis, said: "Our portering members stood up to the initial proposals and have achieved a fair outcome that will both protect staff and keep patients safe."

Unison claims the new plans will reorganise the portering workforce to align with changing patient demand.

The new proposals will ensure no porter is financially worse off, and any impact on work arrangements due to changes to shift patterns will be kept to a minimum.

Unison's lead negotiator, James Sleep added: "It's been a tough few weeks but thanks to the commitment of our members and the help of ACAS we were able to come up with a deal which our members could accept."

Oxford University Hospitals NHS Trust, which runs the hospital, declined to comment.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director James Miller feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money although that obviously helps.

Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service Oxfordshire from their local depots and James is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give James a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Cecil summit

OXFORD: Wildlife researchers at Oxford University have announced they are hosting a lion conservation summit in honour of Cecil the lion.

The university's Wildlife Conservation Research Unit and conservation organisation Panthera will team up for the summit, which would be held in Oxford in 2016.

Horse trapped

CURBRIDGE: Firefighters were called to the scene of an unusual incident over the bank holiday weekend after a horse became stuck between two houses.

The large Shire horse wandered from a field down a small path between the two stone houses on Saturday night.

It is believed the horse was there for a couple of hours before being freed.

Get active

OXON: Leisure centres across South Oxfordshire and Vale of White Horse will be offering free activities as part of National Fitness Day on Wednesday, September 9.

Members and non-members of Better Leisure Centres will be able to join in circuits, swimming fitness and studio cycling classes, amongst others being held during the day.

Affordable theatre idea launches term

YOUNG people in Oxfordshire are being urged to take up the opportunity of a West Hendred youth theatre programme in which the fees are based on the student's family household income.

GoboYOOF is a programme run by Harwell resident Amy Standish, 31, that over the course of three 10 to 12-week terms sees students learn a variety of skills and study all elements of bringing a feature-length production to the stage.

And the programme, which launched last year, is looking for more participants aged between seven and 21 to sign up as term starts on September 19.

Amy told the Guardian: "Parents are really surprised when they see what kind of programme we are.

"They are also hugely grateful when they see the skills that we are teaching their children."

The programme's students take part in making the costumes and set design but are also taught problem-solving skills that Amy believes they can apply to a variety of home or social situation scenarios.

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

She added: "Gobo believes that being part of a theatre production can help young people improve their skills, and understand the scale of mounting a production and the challenges that come with it."

The programme's end show this year was titled 'All at Sea', which Amy directed, and followed an exploration into a girl's dream world the night before she emigrated.

GoboYOOF was started by Oxford-based charity Gobo Theatre Foundation, with the aim of giving students the chance to experience theatre programmes without worrying about the cost.

Amy said: "We're losing diversity in the arts as only the more privileged can be supported through expensive arts educations.

"But also many young people don't have the range of skills needed to get a job.

"It's not just about English and mathematics, it's about teaching the students how to re-think a company's processes, impress clients, manage a team and to go above and beyond for a customer."

• Performers during the production of All at Sea

The programme is only a year old but Amy has plans to expand the business, which for the moment runs a weekly meeting at West Hendred Village Hall.

She added: "We are definitely looking to expand, such as maybe opening another programme in Chilton, but we'll see how this year goes."

To get more information on the programme, go to the website: gobotheatre.co.uk.

Sex offender on the run

POLICE are searching for an Oxford man due to be sentenced for sexual offences in Oxfordshire and Hampshire who fled while on police bail.

Joseph Tsang (pictured), 31, of Sandy Lane, was found guilty of sexual offences at Oxford Crown Court on August 25 after a six-day trial.

The jury found Tsang guilty by majority verdict for two counts of rape and two counts of sexual assault by penetration in Hampshire.

He was also found guilty of one count of making indecent images of children, two counts of causing or inciting a female under 16 years to engage in sexual activity and three counts of sexual activity with a child under 16 years in Oxfordshire earlier this year.

Tsang is Chinese, five foot seven inches tall, slim, clean-shaven, with brown eyes and short straight black hair.

Police fear he may have escaped to Hong Kong or elsewhere in Asia.

Spirits high and dry for wet Wantage Carnival

• The parade (picture by Peter Thompson)

WANTAGE residents were not put off by the rain over the bank holiday weekend and turned out in force for the third Wantage Carnival.

Organisers said between 2,500 and 3,000 people donned their wellies and raincoats in Market Place for the charity event on Sunday.

Bands played throughout the day, and there was also a funfair and a parade featuring revival cars from Motorlux.

Event organiser Ray Collins said: "We had a fantastic turnout considering the weather.

"The Wantage people were fantastic. They were dancing under their umbrellas and the atmosphere was great."

Shush nightclub in Newbury Street provided the entertainment, putting on the 10 bands that played and offering a bar for revellers to refuel.

Proceeds from the event went to Wantage's Beatbox youth club for people with learning difficulties, learning disability charity Yellow Submarine, social club The 14 Club and the Churchill Hospital in Oxford.

Mr Collins added: "The rain dampened the ground but it didn't dampen our spirits."

By Alexander Ballinger
alex@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Shush nightclub owner Steve Head, said: "We were quite impressed with the turnout because of the weather. Bringing the community together is fantastic. That's what its about."

Around 20 market stalls were also on offer for the masses willing to brave the weather.

And there was more to celebrate for Wantage's charity champion after Mr Collins was awarded with the Pride of Wantage Award at the start of the carnival.

The award was given to Mr Collins by Mayor of Wantage St John Dickson for his charity work and service to the town.

Cllr Dickson said: "We haven't handed out the award for over five years. Every now and then someone has done an awful lot for the town that needs recognition. Ray has supported the town a lot."

Mr Collins said: "It was a big shock. I was very proud."

Terry Pratchett remembered by Cowley friend

By Alexander Ballinger
alex@taylornewspapers.co.uk

A CLOSE friend of Terry Pratchett has spoken of his memories of the author's 'sharp and enquiring mind' on the day that his final Discworld novel was published.

Stephen Briggs, from Cowley, has staged Pratchett's plays at the Unicorn Theatre in Abingdon, been the voice of the Discworld audiobooks and written a companion book to the novels.

Pratchett's final book, The Shepherd's Crown, was released last Thursday following the author's death in March.

Speaking to the Guardian on Thursday, Stephen said: "I really liked the new book.

"There are some bits that aren't the old Terry but it's great as a last book."

"He was a sharp and inquiring mind. It always felt like he knew it was going to be his last book."

Pratchett died from Alzheimer's disease earlier this year after first being diagnosed in 2007.

He sold more than 85 million books worldwide, with his popular Discworld novels being released in over 40 volumes.

Mr Briggs added: "We'd known for a long time his death was coming. It doesn't make it any easier. It was awful.

"It was much more impactful than I thought it was going to be."

Mr Briggs first adapted Pratchett's novel Wyrd Sisters for the stage with Oxford's Studio Theatre Club in the Unicorn Theatre in Thames Street in 1991.

He said: "It was through am dram and Discworld I came into contact with Terry.

"I was looking for a new show to stage and someone recommended Terry's work.

"It was like Narnia, I just fell into it."

Mr Briggs is currently working on a homage to both Pratchett and Shakespeare, due to be staged in Abingdon in April.

The 64-year-old said: "I think he would like it.

"Staging his work is always a challenge because there are so many characters and there's so much going on."

Mr Brigg's also said he would consider writing an adaption of The Shephard's Crown in the future.

Over 30 beers and ciders are set to be offered from a range of local and regional breweries, with musicians from the Oxford area set to serenade the crowds across the weekend.

Nursery scheme

OXON: Oxfordshire County Council is calling on families with two-year-old children to look at whether their child is eligible for free nursery sessions this year.

Hall reopens

OXFORD: Oxford Town Hall's main hall in St Aldate's was reopened yesterday after it was restored by painting business, Mitie.

Deputy Lord Mayor Colin Cook was present at the ceremony.

Botley Road Waitrose set for grand opening next month

THE new Waitrose supermarket in Botley Road is set to open its doors to the public next month.

The site, which is currently nearing completion of the construction phase of the store's exterior, will open its doors on October 15.

Over 200 jobs have been created at the branch, with a number of part-time roles still available.

Internal work on the 24,500 sq ft branch is now taking place, with the store set to include meat, fish and deli counters, a bakery and a 90-seat café.

Greg Porter, the store's branch manager, said: "The branch is starting to take shape now, so we're busy preparing for the final stages of the build and recruiting employees."

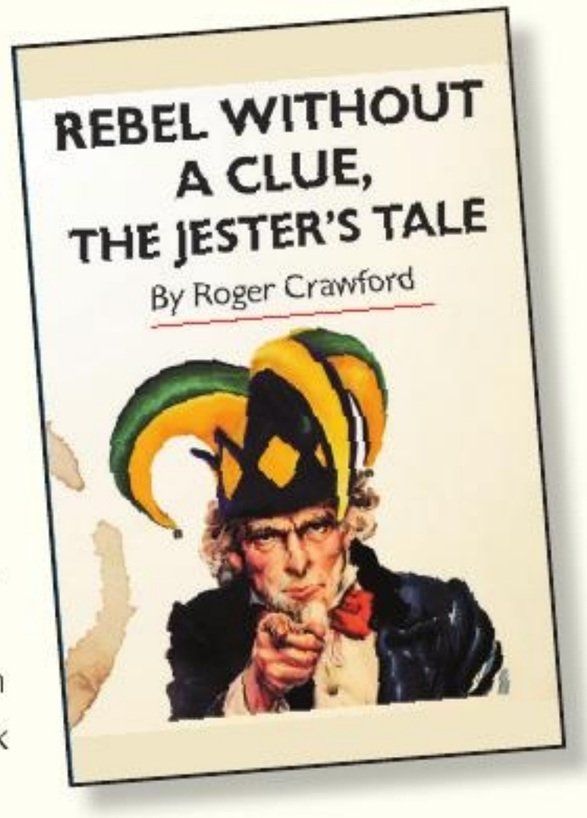
He continued: "Our growing team will include the previously unemployed, school leavers, and people from the Shaw Trust, which helps disabled and disadvantaged people find work."

The store is expected to create 100 more jobs than previously anticipated when it opens this autumn, with 50 more still available at the store for a total of 250.

Plans for the supermarket, on the former derelict Halfords and MFI site, were granted in May last year.

Anyone interested in applying for part-time roles at the Botley Road branch can visit jlpjobs.com for more details.

Rebel Without a Clue, the Jester's Tale



'Rebel Without a Clue, the Jester's Tale' by Roger Crawford, tells the story of how Roger became embroiled in the Family Court system in Oxford in a battle to see his only child, and lost, leading him to protest on various roofs and stand for election in 2010 with his trademark Court Jester outfit.

An entertaining journey through his life, with many laugh-out-loud moments which contrast with the pathos of losing all contact with his daughter and his advice for others who may be in a similar position.

Available now from Amazon for £8.99 and in all good bookshops, it is published by New Generation Publishing.

Action group pulls out of Gateway challenge

AN ACTION group that sought to legally challenge the plans for Oxford's 'Northern Gateway' have admitted defeat after being legally advised that they would not succeed.

The Wolvercote Action Group (WAG) previously failed in their attempts to postpone the development of the new science park in North Oxford at a city council meeting in July in which the council passed plans to develop an Area Action Plan (AAP) for the site.

The AAP concerns the construction of a science and research-led business park, bringing thousands of jobs, 500 homes and a hotel to the land between the A34 and Wolvercote.

The WAG had set up a fundraising page on justgiving.com in order to raise money for their appeal.

However, in a statement issued last Tuesday, the group said: "The WAG has now received a legal opinion on the possibility of seeking a judicial review of the Northern Gateway AAP.

"Very sadly, the advice we have received suggests that, for technical reasons, there is little chance of a successful legal challenge at this stage.

"The group has therefore reluctantly decided not to pursue this further."

The statement added that they will continue to gather evidence on the air pollution impacts of the proposed development on both human health and on the Port Meadow Special Area of Conservation.

The group believe that air quality levels in the selected area for the development would be poor after running tests.

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

But Michael Gotch, city councillor for Wolvercote, thinks that the group's grievances over air pollution coming from the development are misdirected; as he believes the air pollution from the A34 is 'much, much worse'.

He said: "It's clear to me that when looking at the A34 and the plans for the Northern Gateway, most of the air pollution is not going to come from the development, it's all likely to come from the A34.

• Michael Gotch.

"The air pollution from that route is much, much worse than anything the Northern Gateway is going to produce."

Plans for the Northern Gateway were put forward in 2007 and accepted by a planning inspector in December 2010, before the city council formally approved the scheme in 2011 and drew up the Northern Gateway AAP in 2013.

An AAP is an official document setting out how a large area of land can be developed.

An outline planning application for the site is due to be submitted this winter.

Friends hike 50km for Skye

TWO friends from Oxfordshire will walk 50 kilometres for the Abingdon-based charity Blue Skye Thinking this month.

Hilary Lamb and Karen Poolman will hike the huge distance of the Thames Path Challenge on September 12.

Blue Skye Thinking was set up in memory of five-year-old Skye Hall, who died last August from side effects of cancer treatment.

Ms Lamb said: "I have known Skye's family for a long time through our shared interest of Oxford Operatic Society.

"I think the work the charity is doing and the money raised is wonderful so I wanted to do something to contribute to this.

"I also feel extremely fortunate that, when my own son had meningitis as a baby, he thankfully made a full recovery."

The pair are hoping to raise £600 for the charity and are only £90 short of that goal.

Skye's parents Sally and Andrew Hall set up the charity in 2014 to fund research into childhood brain cancer."

Mrs Hall said: "August marked our one year anniversary of starting the charity and we couldn't have achieved everything we have done over the last 12 months without supporters like Hilary and Karen fundraising."

To donate to the pair's challenge visit justgiving.com/Karen-Poolman1.

Higher Education

Swindon College

Our University Partners:

OXFORD BROOKES UNIVERSITY

UNIVERSITY OF GLOUCESTERSHIRE at Cheltenham and Gloucester

Welcome

Swindon College is the largest provider of Higher Education in Swindon, with over 500 students studying on 25 courses.

Higher Education student numbers at Swindon College have increased by 8.5% this year and more students are seeing the benefits of studying at a local college that fits in with their work and family commitments.

As well as lower fees, you could benefit from smaller class sizes with dedicated tutors, allowing more individual support. We have knowledgeable library staff who can help with researching and referencing and a dedicated Higher Education Student Centre, with study spaces and a social area.

All of our programmes are designed with employment in mind and link directly back to the workplace. On successful completion of your course, you'll have the opportunity to don a gown and mortar board for the official Graduation Ceremony.

Did you know that even if you have no or few academic qualifications, but would like to proceed to a degree course or on to professional training you can do an Access Diploma course. The course is studied full time over one academic year and includes subjects necessary for successful completion of the Diploma and entry to higher level study.

If you have not yet enrolled on a course for September - it's not too late to apply!

Why choose Higher Education at Swindon College...

WHY PAY MORE?

It will cost thousands of pounds less than moving away to study at a larger institution.

HE CENTRE

HE Students have the use of a plasma TV in the chill-out area with comfy sofas and chairs to relax in, a seating area for food and drinks an internet café-style bar, plus an adjoining computer suite.

SMALLER CLASS SIZES!

Our class sizes are smaller, this means you get more of your lecturer's time and greater support.

Getting off to a Great Start

The first day at Senior School often brings mixed emotions for both the children and parents. Children generally experience a sense of anticipation with a mixture of nerves and excitement whilst parents find themselves wondering how time has passed so quickly and are hopeful that their child will settle in with ease and make the most of the new opportunities on offer.

At Cokethorpe School every effort is made to ensure that pupils make a smooth transition to life in the Senior School. The foundations are laid a few months in advance when the First Form pupils attend a Transfer Day at the School. Transfer Day allows for the new pupils to spend the day with their new tutor, meet their future classmates, familiarise themselves with the layout of the buildings and grounds and to ask any questions they might have about the year ahead. Before pupils are collected, parents also have the opportunity to meet over tea and biscuits and contact details are exchanged so that friendships that have formed throughout the day can continue to develop over the summer holiday.

At the start of the academic year First Form pupils return to Cokethorpe two days before the rest of the School but instead of heading to the classroom they make their way into the 150 acres of beautiful parkland for an activity camp.

The action packed two days sees pupils kayaking and raft building at the School's boat house on the River Thames, climbing and abseiling on the School's climbing tower, learning bush craft skills in the woods and sleeping under canvas in front of the Mansion House.

The camp is a great introduction to Cokethorpe and the activities encourage supportive team work and the formation of a bond across the year group whilst developing an individual sense of pride, achievement and confidence.

When the morning bell rings on the first day of term the First Form are ready to get off to a great start.

About Cokethorpe School

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

Puppetry and animal antics take the stage

GARLIC Theatre will be back in Oxford this weekend with another family fun show, as 'Old Mother Hubbard' visits the Burton Taylor Studio on Saturday, September 5.

Three shows take place this Saturday, with the production focusing on the old nursery rhyme which looks at an old woman called Mother Hubbard, who with her dog encounters some very strange goings on.

The story will be told through puppets, and performer and puppeteer Iklooshar Malara expressed her joy to the Guardian that she will be returning to the Gloucester Street venue.

"The BT Studio are great friends of our work and the performance area is a very small and intimate space, which is great to perform in," she said.

"This is a very funny, slapstick, fun show where there will be lots of laughter, joining in and singing.

" It's like on stage version of Wallace and Gromit and you could say it's the return of a favourite!"

By James Richings

Iklooshar studied English Literature at Oxford University before starting her first business - Big Wheel Theatre Company - 29 years ago.

This allowed her to work as a co-director for their theatre-in-education workshops.

And Iklooshar made her name across the country by forming the Garlic Theatre Company, which specialises in puppetry and has won five awards at the International Puppet Festival since its inception.

"Adults do enjoy the show enormously as they see their children enjoying themselves and they do get caught up in the story," Iklooshar said.

"One of the best moments is when a child talks to a puppet.

"This is because you can feel that they are really engaged and hugely excited by the puppet interacting with them on a personal level."

Shows are at 11am, 2pm and 4pm.

Andrew Combs in city on whistle-stop tour

AMERICAN musician Andrew Combs arrives in Oxford to perform at The Bullingdon this Sunday, September 6.

By James Richings

Born in Dallas, Texas, the singer-songwriter and guitarist comes for a whirlwind visit to the UK.

Starting his run of shows on September 4 at the End of the Road Festival in Dorest, Andrew will end his British tour nine days later in Winchester before returning to his homeland.

And the 28-year-old is hoping to make a big impression while he is here.

"I have performed at the Bullingdon but it was a while back," Andrew told the Guardian.

"I performed with Caitlin Rose and Frontier Ruckus, which was a blast, and I'm very happy to be heading back to Oxford, which is one of my favourite English cities."

A mixture of original old and new tracks will be on offer at the Cowley Road venue, with Andrew performing songs from his first EP 'Tennessee Time', to hits from his latest album 'All These Dreams', released in March.

And this tour is a huge one for the musician as it will be the first ever time he is performing with a full band overseas.

This doesn't seem to scare the ambitious Andrew, who thanks his dad and cousin for introducing him to the music industry.

He added: "I got into music through my father, who is a piano player, and my cousin, who is a guitar player, and they both showed me the ropes when I was 14 or 15 years old.

"I began writing songs around that time as well, although they were absolutely horrible and I don't know what constitutes a 'major break'.

"However, the moment I was able to quit my day job and play music full time was a big deal in my book and I guess that would have been four years ago."

The show starts at 7.30pm.

Towersey Festival hits new heights

MORE than 8,000 music lovers packed into Thame's Showground to experience the 51st Towersey Festival from August 28 to 31.

By James Richings

The four-day event, held every August bank holiday weekend since 1964, saw excited music fans watch a host of big name musicians and bands perform including Bellowhead and Joan Armatrading.

And with over 100 acts on show last weekend, the vibe going around the Thame Showground left everyone in a very relaxed mood.

"My favourite aspect of the whole festival was definitely the chilled, relaxed atmosphere that surrounded the whole event," 19-year-old James Wilkinson told the Guardian.

"There was no stress, just people having a great time.

"It is definitely different from any festival experience I've ever had before and I would definitely recommend it to young people.

"There is so much to see and do from what you might think at first."

Friend Taylor Ness added: "I enjoyed the laid back, family feel as it made the whole experience a lot more relaxing in comparison to other festivals I've been to."

There was also a huge range of family activities on offer, such as rock-climbing, strength testing machines and water zorbing.

However, one of the most approached stands at the weekend's festival had nothing to do with music.

Aylesbury Youth Action hosted 'Horizon', which is a new art project from Aylesbury that encourages people to explore their own 'horizons' through the medium of paint.

Run with Buckinghamshire Association for the Blind, the project is accessible to everyone across the full spectrum of sight and visual impairment.

Participants were offered a range of masks and patches to limit their sight whilst they painted the thing that makes or would make them 'happy' on a wooden board.

Festival director Joe Heap said: "We've been really blown away by the positive feedback we've had from all of our regular festival-goers.

"They really enjoyed the mix of familiar Towersey attractions and activities, such as lantern-making, with the new elements.

Next year's festival will run from Friday, August 26 to Monday, August 29.

• Water zorbing was popular with youngsters

• A juggler at Towersey

• Thousands of people turned up to this year's festival

Vantage GT12 leads the way

ASTON Martin Works is preparing for a busy September of new sports car sales handovers, led by its first delivery of the sold-out Vantage GT12.

The arrival of the '65' registration plate will trigger the September sales spike, as eager buyers of the British brand's luxury sports cars take delivery of their new models.

By James Richings

The Milton Keynes business, which is among the busiest Aston Martin dealerships in the world since it opened its new car showroom three years ago, is gearing up for one of its most hectic months of the year as buyers from across the UK collect their new cars.

Leading the charge from the Buckinghamshire showroom this September is the arrival of one of the first new Vantage GT12 sports cars to be handed over to a UK customer.

With production strictly limited to just 100 cars, the Vantage GT12 special edition draws on all of the brand's learning from years of top level motorsport competition around the globe.

It is equipped with a new iteration of the Aston Martin 6.0-litre V12 engine and is capable of generating up to 600 HP making it not only more powerful but also 100kg lighter than a standard V12 Vantage S.

Significantly restyled, as well as re-engineered, the motorsport-inspired road car is lower and wider than any of its Vantage siblings and boasts cutting edge motorsport-inspired features such as the extensive use of carbon fibre inside, as well as a track-focused aerodynamics pack which includes a prominent rear wing and pronounced front splitter.

This new GT3-derived Vantage has been designed and engineered exclusively at Aston Martin's Gaydon Headquarters in Warwickshire, to be the most overt expression of everything that defines Vantage: an inspirational sports model offering supreme drivability on the road, and uncompromising dynamic performance on track.

"September remains a hugely busy period for us," Aston Martin Works Commercial Director Paul Spires said.

He continued: "And with the added anticipation around deliveries of the brand's most sought-after models such as the now sold-out Vantage GT12, we are set for a hectic but very positive few weeks."

65 REGISTRATION PLATE

September 1st will mark the release of the new 65 registration plates. The release means that new car buyers who are eager to keep up with the latest trends will be able to order a model from us here at Motorlux with the new registration from next week, such as the all-new Ford Fiesta and Ford Focus.

The registration plate format was changed in 1999 from having one change a year to two. As it stands currently, number plates change at the first of March and the first of September. The plates were then reorganised in 2001 to make the car's age easier to identify.

Current number plates are split into three sections: the local memory tag, the age identifier and the random letters at the end, which in turn make the cars identity unique.

The local memory tag is the first two letters of the plate. Representing where the vehicle was registered, the first letter refers to the region and the second to a local DVLA office.

The middle two numbers refer to he car's age with the second number reflecting the last number of the year the car was registered and the first denoting which period of the year it was.

For instance, in 2015, registrations at the start of the year were marked 15, while the new plates from September will be 65. Next year, the plates will change to 16 and 66 respectively and so on until 2050.

You can refer to the government's official website (www.gov.uk/vehicle-registration) or get in touch with your local DVLA office if you need more information or guidance on how to tell the age of a car prior to 2001.

But what are the benefits? Well, not only can you show off your shiny new vehicle, a recent number plate can help tremendously if you chose to sell your car after a short period of time.

Brand new cars offer peace of mind due to their reliability. And if the unthinkable does happen, there's a good chance that it is covered by the manufacturers warranty.

With the latest technology, improved fuel efficiency and safety, and the ability to tailor the vehicle specifications to yourself and your lifestyle, a new car is definitely worth considering.

MOTORLUX NEWS

Two of our favourite new vehicles here at Motorlux are the all new Ford Fiesta and Ford Focus. You can now order these 65 registration cars from our Ford team with 0% APR representative. Get £1460 Deposit Allowance when financing the all-new Focus, or £945 Deposit Allowance when you finance the all-new Fiesta with Ford Credit on 2 year Ford Acquire. For all information and full terms and conditions visit www.ford.co.uk.

This is also great news for those in the market for a good deal on a used car, as with the release of the 65 registration plates comes a price decrease on vehicles with older number plates.

Accompanying all of our new models, we have a vast selection of approved used cars and vans on sale from leading manufacturers. Find out more at www.motorlux.co.uk.

In other news here at Motorlux, we have recently hired four new members of staff that fit into our team perfectly.

At the end of August, Julians of Didcot, another independent family owned Ford dealership like ourselves, are closing their doors for the final time. Operating for over 100 years in the area, they have experienced a true success story due to their fantastic and loyal customers.

Over that time, we have formed a strong relationship with them due to our shared passions and close location.

Because of this relationship, we will ensure that Julians valued and loyal customers will continue to receive the highest level of service here at Motorlux, and be looked after as they have always been. Some of your favourite members of the Julians team have joined our friendly faced outfit, with Ian and Brian in sales team, and Greg and Stephen in service.

We understand that getting to Motorlux may be inconvenient, adding a few miles distance onto your usual trip to Julians. That is why we are offering to collect and deliver your car, completely free of charge. This is just one of the many benefits being offered to you by us here at Motorlux.

Motorlux are one of South Oxfordshire & Newbury's leading independent, family owned car dealer groups, representing three car manufacturers. Motorlux proudly represent Ford and Volvo in Wantage, Oxfordshire and Mazda in Newbury – so you have a fantastic range of cars to chose from.

O'Dowda stars as U's jump to fifth in table

By Loughlan Campbell
loughlan@taylornewspapers.co.uk

OXFORD United winger Callum O'Dowda produced another memorable performance after his goal and a header from Danny Hylton gave United their second home win in an angsty 2-0 win over Yeovil Town at the Kassam Stadium, which elevated The U's into fifth in Sky Bet League Two.

Hylton's goal early in the first half set the game up for a series of missed chances for United, who couldn't seem to kill the game off before O'Dowda stepped up to put the game to bed late on in the second half.

United sought to put the pressure on Yeovil early on and after 14 minutes had their opener when Hylton was allowed to head home O'Dowda's cross.

Alex MacDonald had latched onto a loose ball in the area and swerved his way through before laying the ball to O'Dowda, who beautifully chipped it over to Hylton whose header was spot on.

Hylton was then played in by Roofe in the 31st minute but the forward's shot was deflected just wide when he had space in the box as the 26-year-old searched for his second of the day.

The second-half started without much of a flourish as Roofe looked to link up with Hylton, and Yeovil's Ryan Bird looked to pressurise the Oxford defence.

O'Dowda nearly sparked the half into life after a wonderful through ball set up Roofe in the area on 55 minutes, but Krysiak got down well to block the effort as United looked the most likely to snatch the next goal.

The 20-year-old Irishman then came close after weaving his way through the box but fired his shot too close to Krysiak who saved well.

Shortly after, MacDonald lifted a ball into Sercombe whose chip was just wide.

United's second finally came with 15 minutes to go as O'Dowda was allowed space to slot in after Hylton's mazing run.

Roofe nearly made it three on 85 minutes but his effort was just wide of Yeovil's post.

Oxford RL beaten blue by Swinton

OXFORD RL were battered 84-16 in a mauling by hosts Swinton Lions in Kingstone Press League 1 on Monday.

Swinton's Stuart Littler and Chris Atkin scored 52 points between them as the Lions ran rampant over the Blues.

Swinton were 18-0 up with just over 15 minutes played as Littler, Atkin and Ben White all crossed.

Oxford managed to break the dominance as Danny Thomas fed Steve Scott, who went over the line from close range.

Littler then completed his hat trick in a quick-fire double and the Lions raced into a 42-4 half-time lead after Atkin and Littler crossed again along with Ian Mort.

Swinton then doubled their tally in the second half thanks to a fifth try from Littler - Atkin's third of the day - a double from Chris Rothwell, and respective tries from Grant Beecham and Josh Parlow.

Shaun Robinson then raced over the line from a 90-yard run for Swinton.

Oxford managed to cross twice in the second half with Nathan Kitson scoring one and putting Tom Davies through for the second one as The Blues were left bruised.

Smith fights the rain for Silverstone seventh place

BRADLEY Smith battled through the wet conditions at Silverstone in order to take home a seventh place finish at the British Grand Prix in the MotoGP championship last weekend.

The conditions were difficult from the off with the race having to be delayed as rain fell on the warm up lap after the track was declared dry.

Another stoppage saw all bikers switch to their wet bikes and Smith charged off from the start, finishing the first lap in sixth before dropping down to ninth by the second lap.

Smith managed to slalom his way into seventh by the close of the third and kept his rhythm well before he was bumped back to eight by lap 10.

With five laps remaining, the Oxford biker navigated himself into seventh place and guided his Yamaha YZR-M1 to the finish line in that position.

He said after the race: "I have to be quite pleased with the end result as the conditions were far from ideal out there today, but I did my best.

"I was a bit nervous on the grid about riding in the damp conditions as last year we struggled when it was wet, but we've improved the bike by more than 100 per cent in terms of performance."

Smith's next race in the Championship will be at the Misano World Circuit in Rimini, Italy.

Lotus await news on Renault takeover

ENSTONE-BASED Lotus F1 head to this weekend's Italian Grand Prix under a cloud of uncertainty, as speculation remains over Renault's planned takeover of the squad.

The cash-strapped Lotus team picked up their first podium in almost two years last time out at Spa Francorchamps in Belgium, as Romain Grosjean brought his car home in third position on the grid.

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

And talks are ongoing between Lotus and Renault – who previously owned the team between 2002 and 2011 – for the French manufacturer to take back control.

But away from the off-track goings on, Grosjean is hoping for another strong performance on the circuit this weekend.

He said: "Monza should suit our car better than Spa.

"Of course we don't know how our performance relative to our rivals will stack up until we get there, but I'm certainly going out for the strongest result possible, as I always do."

Pastor Maldonado will be looking for a change in luck this weekend, after a mechanical problem in Belgium brought his race to an early end.

It has been a frustrating season for the Venezuelan so far, who has only picked up points on two occasions and retired from seven races this year.

He said: "It's frustrating not to finish any grand prix, but it was particularly so in Belgium as we really had potential to go well."

Appleton is 'building' United for League One

OXFORD United manager Michael Appleton admitted he's trying to build a squad to compete in League One next season after Oxford climbed to fifth in the table with a 2-0 win over Yeovil Town last Saturday.

United have nine points from five games and currently occupy one of the play-off places, with the mood around the Kassam Stadium suggesting that this could be the year that the U's mount a challenge to move to League One.

Appleton said after the game: "That was the best we've played this season and we are definitely ahead of where we want to be. We're eight points ahead of where we were this time last season."

"The idea is to almost build a side that will be competitive in League One, of course we've first got to do the business in League Two and get out of this division."

He continued: "Ultimately what you do looking forward is to make sure that if we get out of this division then we won't have to make many improvements to the squad the following season."

Walkinshaw targets good start in Portimao

CHIPPING Norton racer Sean Walkinshaw is 'really looking forward' to getting back behind the wheel as he heads to Portugal's Autodromo Internactional do Algarve in Portimao in the Blancpain Sprint Series this weekend.

The 21-year-old is teaming up with fellow Brit Craig Dolby in the series as it enters the fifth event of its championship.

The drivers are equal 12th in the driver's standings with British squad JRM group.

Walkinshaw said: "I'm really looking forward to being back racing after such a long break, it feels like an age since we were at Spa in July in the Endurance Series.

"We're all fully focused on getting the second part of the year off to a really strong start and challenging for some good points and to have a trouble-free weekend."

McDonagh moves

DIDCOT Town forward Conor McDonagh has made the move to Oxford City, less than three months after he signed for the South Oxfordshire side.

McDonagh, who was part of City manager Justin Merritt's Oxford City Nomads side that won the Hellenic Championship in 2011/12, netted 45 times for the side that season as well as making three starts for City that season.

McDonagh was signed by Didcot this June and scored four goals in five starts for the side this season.

City make history in 6-0 thrashing

OXFORD City made history on bank holiday Monday as they inflicted the biggest defeat on Truro City since November 2013 in a 6-0 win at Treyew Road.

Amongst the highlights of the goalfest was an 11-minute hat-trick for Vinny Mukendi with Omari Sterling-James, Bradley Bubb and Luke Coulson also netting in the big win that puts City fourth in the National Conference South.

City were in front inside six minutes after Reece Fleet set Sterling-James free to who swooped in an effort from 20 yards.

After 20 minutes it was two for City when Fleet played Bubb in with a ball through the defence that was lashed in to the net by the City striker.

Bubb was then forced off with a leg injury and Mukendi came on as Oxford stalled any Truro attack.

Seven minutes into the second half City were awarded a penalty when Fleet was brought down in the box by Rob Farkins, who was subsequently sent off.

Substitute Mukendi scored the penalty and adding his second shortly afterwards when he was played in by another Fleet pass.

The striker then completed his hat-trick, glancing in a David King cross before Coulson was brought down by Shane Krac in stoppage time who fired home to make it six.

Pre-season challenge

ICE HOCKEY: Oxford City Stars are set to entertain the London Racers in a pre-season challenge at Oxpens Road this Sunday, ahead of the new NIHL Division One campaign starting later this month.

The Racers currently play in NIHL South Division 2 and the game will kick off from 6.15pm as the Stars look to start the campaign in a competitive mood.

The Stars are set to travel down to Wightlink Raiders next Saturday to kick off their season.

Ardley Utd trounced in 3-0 defeat

IT was a miserable bank holiday Monday for Ardley United as they were well beaten at Brackley Town Saints in a 3-0 defeat.

The Saints took a stranglehold on the game from the off with Ryan Hunt and Logan Kelling both carving out openings.

Ardley were unable to really get going in the game and they were punished on 39 minutes when the Saints, after some close-knit passing, put Kelling through to kick off the scoring.

Henry Jackson nearly scored a second for the Saints with Ardley then going close through Chris Jackson, whose corner was blocked away.

Brackley doubled their advantage straight the restart with Kelling lobbing the keeper from the edge of the box with only 30 seconds gone.

The game was then marred with a controversial decision after Henry Jackson was played through the middle and despite being two yards offside, he was allowed to coast through and make it 3-0 for the Saints.

Josh Bowden was brought on for Ardley although his side struggled to make any chances in the box as they fought to get back into the game.

The home side continued to dominate proceedings and the game teetered out with Ardley looking depleted as they trudged off the field.

Up next for Ardley is an encounter at Fairford Town in the FA Vase first qualifying round on Saturday in an enticing encounter.

MILLERS MAKE IT SIX FROM SIX

CALLUM McNish's winning strike for North Leigh over Didcot Town kept his side's fantastic start to the season going after the Millers made it six from six in the league with a 3-2 win at the Loop Meadow Stadium on bank holiday Monday.

Mark Gee's side have made a perfect start in the Southern League Division One South and West and lead the table on 18 points, five ahead of second-placed Winchester City.

The Millers had the ideal preparation for the encounter after hitting seven past Cove FC in their preliminary round FA Cup tie on Saturday.

Their tussle with Didcot kicked off in rainy conditions but the Millers played the ball along the surface nicely.

However, it was Didcot who took the lead after Adam Learoyd stepped up and headed in a corner in the 20th minute of play.

Controversy then reared its ugly head as Leigh's Luke Sanders slipped in the box, with the referee ruling that a Didcot player had made contact and gave a penalty.

Aaron Woodley stepped up and planted the ball into the net past Leigh Bedwell to level the scores in the 25th minute.

Just three minutes later, The Diddy were back in front after Matt Woodley's free kick was knocked into the box and Andy Ballard slid the ball past keeper James Foster to restore Didcot's lead.

The second half saw both sides go for the jugular but it was North Leigh who took their chance as, with only a minute gone, Osborne-Ricketts fired in the Miller's second equaliser of the day.

Both sides kept trying to move the ball forward but it was the Millers who managed to squeeze in a winner as Woodley's pass split the Didcot defence and Callum McNish latched on to it and fired past Bedwell to keep his side top of the table.

The result will delight Millers fans as the squad seem to have an infallible look about them as they set up their charge for promotion this season.

Gee's side will next be in action at Eynsham Park on Saturday against 20th-placed Bridgewater Town as they look to continue their winning streak.
